

It is the FCC's responsibility to promote diversity of voices in the media. The Commission should NOT accede to the NAB's attempts to limit competition by satellite radio by prohibiting its transmission of local information such as traffic and weather.